- e) At the dissolution of RGSFC, after all debt and liabilities have been liquidated, any remaining assets and property will be donated to another non-profit senior's organization. The target of the donation will be determined by the Executive Board as the last decision of the committee

ARTICLE 7 – ELECTION PROCEDURES

7.1 NOMINATION COMMITTEE

- a) At the Executive Meeting held in January or February of each year, a nominating committee will be selected by the Executive to present a slate of members who are willing to stand for office.
- b) This will be in addition to other members who may be proposed and seconded from the floor at the meeting held to elect officers.
- c) The nominating committee will be responsible for conducting the meeting for the election of officers and will elect a Chairman for that committee.

7.2 NOMINATION PROCEDURES

- a) Formal nominations are to be received no less than 14 days prior to the AGM. Nominee's agreement must be secured before being added to the nomination list
- b) No less than one week prior to the AGM, a list of all Committee positions to be filled along with a nomination form and position descriptions for each office, will be prominently available to each registered member which comprises of the membership of RGSFC. This process will constitute the Call for Nominations.
- c) In order to be considered, a candidate must be a member of good standing in RFSFC

7.3 TYPICAL ELECTION PROCEDURES

- a) After the conclusion of the business meeting in AGM, the President hands over the proceeding to the Elected Committee
- b) A membership Convener and one scrutineer will verify membership status of attendees. Any non-member will not be allowed to vote
- c) Each member will receive a Slate of Officers/Directors up for election
- d) The Chair will read aloud the prepared slate as well as the confirmed names of members willing to stand for that particular office/position

- e) The Chair will inquire if there are additional nominees from the floor to contest the vacancies. Nominees will need to accept the nomination and be seconded to qualify for election
- f) If no further nominations are received, the Chair will declare the nominations closed
- g) Each office will be voted upon separately. The Chair will ask each nominee in turn whether s/he is willing to stand for the particular office, and allow him/her the opportunity to address, briefly, the members assembled
- h) Voting will be based on 1 member 1 vote and can be by a show of hands if no one objects or by secret ballots
- i) If there is more than one candidate per office, voting will be conducted. Scrutineers, selected by the nominating committee, will count the show of hands, hand out ballots, collect and tally the votes, signing and submitting the count to the Chair
- j) The members of the Executive shall be elected by a simple majority
- k) If a single nomination is received for a particular office, that nominee will be elected by acclamation, with the Secretary casting one ballot.

7.4 PROXIES

- a) Voting by proxy is permitted if members are not able to attend an election
- b) To qualify, the member giving the proxy vote to an attending member of good standing will need to have a signed letter specifying the proxy intention, date of the election, date of signature, membership number, and full name of the attending member
- c) Proxy letters must be submitted to the Secretary of RGSFC to be effective

7.5 SWEARING IN THE NEW OFFICERS

- a) At the conclusion of the elections, the Chair will read the new slate of Officers aloud, and the newly-elected Officers will be sworn in (i.e. "I do sincerely pledge my honour to the duties of my office to the best of my ability and in accordance with the principles of RGSFC")
- b) Following the swearing in, the newly-elected Officers will assume their new positions beginning the next fiscal year.

7.6 FIRST MEETING AFTER THE AGM

- a) A motion to confirm the election will be the first order of business at the subsequent RGSFC Executive Board meeting.
- b) A motion to destroy the election ballots will be the second order of business at the same meeting.

ARTICLE 8 – CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A conflict of interest is defined as a situation which an Officer, who is in a position of trust, has a professional or personal interest that competes with the best interests of RGSFC and its members. Such competing interests can make it difficult for an Officer/Director to perform his/her duties and responsibilities objectively. A conflict of interest exists even if no unethical or improper act results. A conflict of interest can create an appearance of impropriety that can undermine confidence in RGSFC and its efforts.

8.1 DISCLOSING CONFLICT OF INTEREST AT A MEETING

If an Officer/Director has, or suspects he/she has a conflict of interest, direct or indirect, in any matter and is present at an Executive meeting, the Officer/Director shall:

- a) disclose the conflict of interest
- b) not take part in the discussion or vote
- c) not influence the vote of others
- d) leave the meeting when the matter is under consideration

8.2 DISCLOSING CONFLICT OF INTEREST AFTER A MEETING

If an Officer/Director is not in attendance at the meeting where a conflict of interest arises, he/she shall disclose the conflict of interest at the first meeting. All Officers/Directors must sign and abide by a Conflict of Interest Statement approved by the Executive.

ARTICLE 9 – CODE OF CONDUCT

The Code of Conduct reflects a commitment to the organization's values and provides a framework to guide ethical conduct in a way that upholds integrity. Executive and members are expected to behave in a way that aligns with the Code.

9.1 CORE VALUES

Members of RGSFC are expected to:

- a) act with impartiality and integrity
- b) demonstrate respect, transparency, and accountability

9.2 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

RGSFC's guiding principles include:

- a) having a responsibility to act in good faith and to place the interest of RGSFC above own private interests
- b) knowing that when there is a real or potential conflict of interest, it must be disclosed at the first opportunity
- c) behaving in a way that demonstrates that behaviour and actions are respectful, fair and reasonable under the circumstance
- d) encouraging members to act fairly and ethically
- e) encouraging feedback from the membership to create a welcoming environment instead of one of fear of reprisal
- f) knowing that if there are any questions regarding the Code, or are unsure of how to apply the principles, the President should be consulted
- g) understanding that breaches of this Code may result in disciplinary action, up to and including suspension of membership
- h) Members confirm (on an annual basis) their understanding of, and commitment to, the expectations in the Code of Conduct

9.3 BEHAVIOUR STANDARDS

Ethical behaviour standards help an organization make appropriate decisions.

Members:

- a) must not engage in criminal activity and must comply with all relevant laws, regulations, policies and procedures
- b) must not use the status or position with RGSFC to influence, benefit or advantage themselves
- c) contributes to a safe and healthy environment that is free from discrimination, harassment and violence
- d) must not use drugs or alcohol in a way that affects performance and safety of themselves or others or negatively impacts the reputation of RGSFC
- e) must act in a way that is consistent with RGSFC protocols on public comment
- f) Must take reasonable steps to avoid situations where they may be placed in a real or apparent conflict between private interests and the interests of RGSFC.

- g) Possible examples include:
 - 1. Use of confidential information
 - 2. Gifts and gratuities
 - 3. Outside activities that conflict with goals of RGSFC
 - 4 political activity
 - 5 relationships that might question impartiality
- h) Code of Conduct also refers to after a member leaves RGSFC, to not disclosing Club confidential information or use of contacts for personal gain

9.4 REPORTING PROCESS

- a) The Vice President shall be the Code Administrator
- b) The Code Administrator receives and ensures confidentiality and privacy of all disclosures, is responsible for providing advice, managing the concerns, and ensuring procedural fairness
- c) Disclosure of all real or apparent conflicts of interest must be declared in writing to the Code Administrator; about oneself or another
- d) The Code Administrator promptly reviews the circumstance and details of the potential breach
- e) The identity of the reporter will not be disclosed unless required by law
- f) The alleged member has the right to complete information and the right to respond
- g) The Code Administrator makes a decision and completes a report of the review in a timely manner
- h) The decision may range from no potential breach to one that reveals suspected criminal conduct

If an Officer/Director or member does not comply with the standards of behaviour identified in the Code of Conduct, they may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including removal from their office and/or RGSFC
A request in writing can be made to the President to review the decision of the Code Administrator using the appeals process.

ARTICLE 10 – LEGAL RESPONSIBILITIES

10.1 INDEMNIFICATION

RGSFC shall indemnify and save harmless the Officers/Directors from:

- a) all costs, charges and expenses that s/he sustains or incurs in or about any action, suit or proceeding that is brought against him/her in respect to any act done or permitted by him/her in the execution of the duties of his/her office
- b) An Officer/Director that is proven to be in neglect will incur all costs that are associated with the legal proceedings.

10.2 MEMBER INFORMATION AND PRIVACY

- a) All information collected about members, including but not limited to name, address, phone numbers, email addresses shall be protected in accordance with applicable laws and only will be used for the purposes of communication on club matters
- b) Personal information will be kept confidential and secure
- c) If member information is to be shared, each member must provide consent and sign a release of information form
- d) Member information will not be distributed to any external group

10.3 INSURANCE

RGSFC through registering in the City of Mississauga Community Group Registry will receive insurance as per policy. RGSFC should discuss whether additional insurance such as liability/error and omissions insurance are required and purchased as decided.

ARTICLE 11 – ANNUAL REPORT

RGSFC will write an annual report that highlights its successes, discloses its budget and shares statistics about their memberships and programs. The report shall include at minimum:

- a) name of club
- b) date
- c) list of executive and their office
- d) # of members at end of fiscal year
- e) # of activities offered
- f) # of participants
- g) # of volunteers
- h) # of volunteer hours
- i) accomplishments – summary from each Officer
- j) budget
- k) objectives/priorities met
- l) next years' objectives/priorities
- m) signed by President

The President will review the Annual Report with members at the AGM acknowledging the City of Mississauga support for their in-kind financial benefits. This report will be made available to all members and the public, excluding financial statements and any confidential or personal information for which consent to disclose has not been obtained, by posting on the clubs website.

A copy of the Annual Report will be given to the City of Mississauga.

This updated and amended Constitution and By-Laws was ratified by the Board of Executive on Nov. 29, 2022 and approved by the Members on Mar. 2, 2023.
